

Insect Watch Chart

Use the simple ideas in this chart to encourage insect observation or hunting.

Watch blooming flowers for pollinators. 	Look for flying insects in the air. 	Search for insects in soil. 	 What hides beneath a log?
Stick insects and katydids hide in trees. 	Who lives in bark crevices? 	Search leaf litter for critters. 	 Who comes out at night?
Investigate leaves for caterpillars. 	 Look under leaves for insect eggs or larvae.	Search plants in cool, shady areas for ladybugs. 	What evidence do you notice of insect activity?
What's hiding under the rock? 	Who live near waterways? 	What insects will you find after the rain? 	Insects come to rest at sunset. Who will you spot? 