

N.S.A.
2022

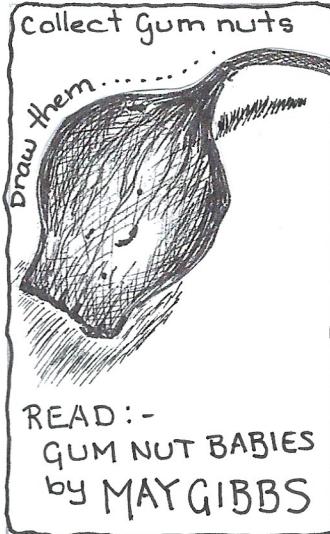

FEBRUARY

"The earth is the WORD's, and all its fullness..."
Ps 24v1a

Copy

"It is really a month of debutantes for all the young birds are entering into the arena of life, and are trying their little voices in the universal song."

A Bush Calendar ~ Amy Mack

LOOK FOR, WRITE ABOUT...

- red flowering gums
- mistletoe flowering
- fiddler and stag beetles
- emperor gum caterpillars
- mole crickets
- tadpoles and water boatmen
- flowering swamp lily
- berries on saltbush
- jellyfish
- fruit bats
- reed warblers
- geckoes
- sand snails
- grass dart butterflies
- pimpernel flowers

RECORD TEMPERATURE
RAIN FALL
WIND DIRECTION

From "Make a Date with Nature".

Write the following list of words on a piece of paper as headings, leaving space next to and below each word for writing to be added later:-

big hard furry prickly quiet smooth simple loud small soft shy complex proud humble

USE YOUR FIVE SENSES TO EXPLORE THE WORLD !

Then when you're in a natural place try to find things that fit these words. Also write a sentence or two describing why each thing could be described by the word you've placed it next to. ~ Paula Peeters

"From first to last the children should be taught that the object of the flower is to develop seed. They should look eagerly into the maturing flower for the growing fruit."

Anna Botsford Comstock